

CONSTELLATION CLUES

Use your knowledge of stars and constellations to complete the puzzle below!

Across

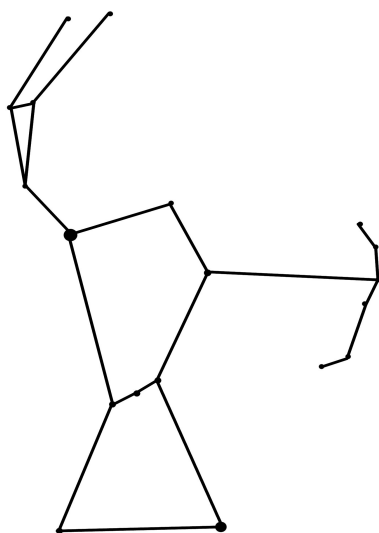

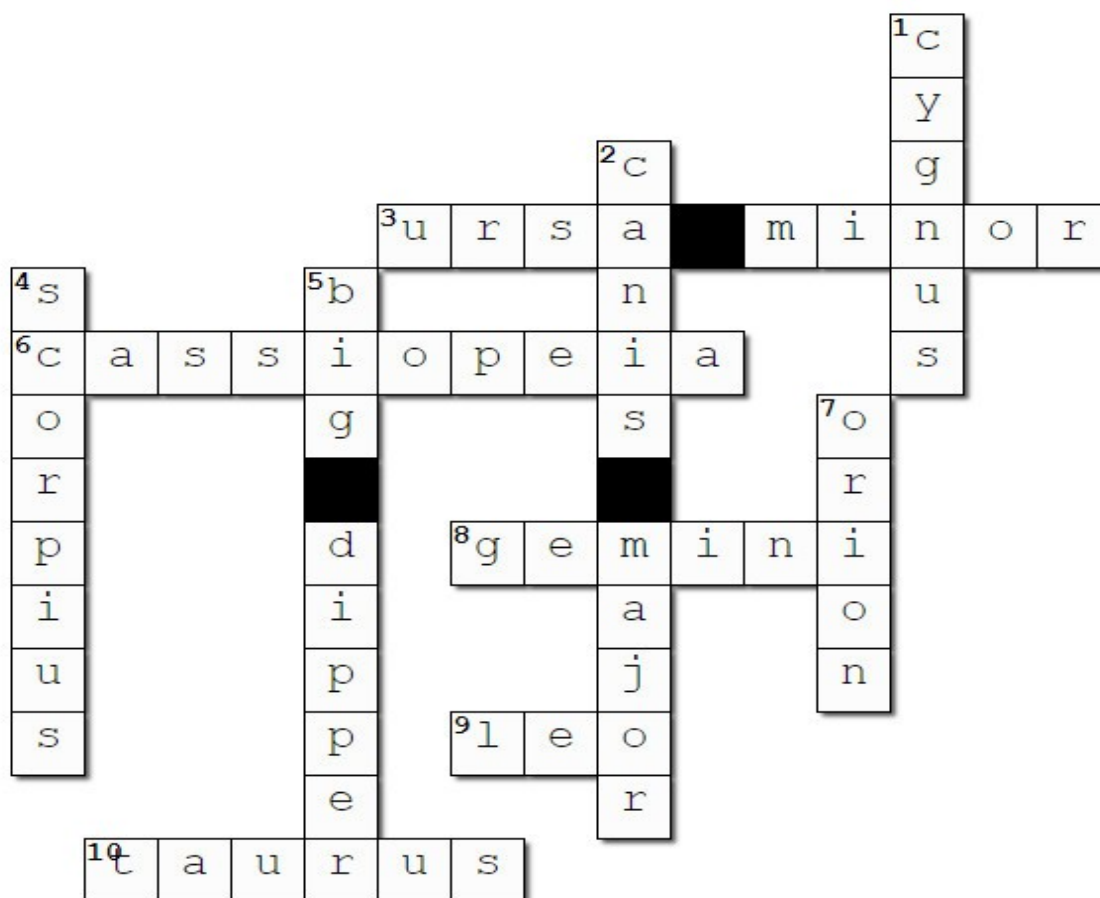

3. The Little Dipper is just a part of this constellation.
6. This constellation, named for a queen, looks like an 'M' or 'W'.
8. The name of this constellation is Latin for 'twins.'
9. Ancient astronomers thought this constellation was shaped like a lion.
10. This constellation's name is the Latin word for 'bull.'

Down

1. Although named for a swan, this constellation is also called the Northern Cross.
2. This constellation, named 'the greater dog' in Latin, contains Sirius, the brightest star in the sky.
4. This constellation's name is the Latin word for 'scorpion.'
5. The constellation Ursa Major contains this well known group of stars.
7. This constellation has a belt of three stars.

CONSTELLATION CLUES

Use your knowledge of stars and constellations to complete the puzzle below!

Across

3. The Little Dipper is just a part of this constellation.
6. This constellation, named for a queen, looks like an 'M' or 'W'.
8. The name of this constellation is Latin for 'twins.'
9. Ancient astronomers thought this constellation was shaped like a lion.
10. This constellation's name is the Latin word for 'bull.'

Down

1. Although named for a swan, this constellation is also called the Northern Cross.
2. This constellation, named 'the greater dog' in Latin, contains Sirius, the brightest star in the sky.
4. This constellation's name is the Latin word for 'scorpion.'
5. The constellation Ursa Major contains this well known group of stars.
7. This constellation has a belt of three stars.